Business interchange groups

To establish clear communication between the Wisconsin Department of Transportation (WisDOT) and the business community, WisDOT has formed business groups by interchange area. These groups will provide businesses with firsthand information about project milestones and identify needs and concerns before and during construction.

{quickdown:512}{quickdown:513}