

Introduction to roundabouts on US 41

A safer kind of intersection

Roundabouts are gaining popularity in the United States due to their proven track record of providing safer and more efficient traffic flow. These circular intersections have flared entryways marked by yield signs and a centerpiece that deflects traffic, causing drivers to slow down. You may have seen other types of circular intersections such as a traffic circle, but roundabouts are far more efficient. Although roundabouts may seem foreign at first, they are very simple to use and will greatly improve safety.

Want to see how each of the roundabouts will be constructed? Check out the examples below for complete renderings of selected intersections/interchanges along US 41.

Winnebago County

Click to view: 9th Avenue

Click to view: Witzel Avenue

Click to view: WIS 21

Click to view:

Breezewood Lane

Brown County

Click to view: Packerland Drive

Click to view: Scheuring Road

Click to view: CTH G

Mason Street

Shawano Avenue

Shawano-Taylor Avenue

Velp

Lineville

The "Take it Slow" Roundabout Campaign

We've created a new informational campaign designed to help you navigate into and out of roundabouts more safely. We feature the four main roundabout tips:

- taking it slow
- yielding to the left
- not passing
- choosing the correct lane

We've named this campaign "Take it Slow," because a major cause of roundabout crashes is speed. Check out the " Take it Slow " campaign now. roundabout information campaign.

Roundabout Simulation

Experience the new Mason Street interchange firsthand as you are directed through a series of multi-lane roundabouts from a driver's perspective:

Westbound Mason Street to US 41

Southbound US 41 to Eastbound Mason Street

Mason Street overview

Roundabouts Near You

Curious about where you'll find roundabouts in your county? Take a look at these maps for more details and construction dates:

Brown County RAB locations

Winnebago County RAB locations